

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim: We support and congratulate the campaign of \"our children\" to build schools in the liberated areas

Head of the National Iraqi Alliance, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, expressed his support and felicitation for the campaign of \"our children\" for the reconstruction of schools in the areas that were liberated from terrorist Daesh, praising all proposals that are based on restoring stability to the liberated areas.

\\r\\n

This took place during his eminence meeting a delegation of the campaign in his office in Baghdad Wednesday 22/3/2017.

\\r\\n

His eminence expressed the support of the National Iraqi Alliance for this campaign and all campaigns that contribute to restore normal life to the areas destroyed by terrorism, urging the campaign \"Our Children\" and other services to focus on serving people away from political strife, pointing to the importance of coordination with the federal government and local governments for the role of coordination in the success of mission and share experiences in this domain.