

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim receives the Japanese Ambassador to Baghdad and discusses reconstruction of liberated cities

Head of the National Alliance, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, at his office in Baghdad received the Ambassador of Japan to Baghdad Thursday, 23/3/2017.

\r\n

His eminence with the Japanese Ambassador discussed the reconstruction of areas that were liberated from the terrorist Daesh and the contribution of the international community and Japan as one of the leading countries in this field that presented previous contributions to assist Iraq, calling the international community to shoulder its responsibilities towards the humanitarian suffering of Iraqis whom are fighting a war on behalf of the world.

\r\n

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim with the Japanese ambassador reviewed the security and political developments in Iraq and the region and the victories against terrorist Daesh achieved by the Iraqi people in all its components indicating that Iraq has regained its people and became united against terrorism which facilitates the elimination of terrorism in Iraq, considering Mosul the last military confrontation with the terrorist Daesh and then Daesh will return to its previous activities and this requires plans and solutions that commensurate with the size of the security threat, pointing out that these security developments are observed by the decision-maker of Iraq.