

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim meets a delegation from the Iraqi Medical Association

Head of the National Iraqi Alliance, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, met with a delegation from the Iraqi Medical Association headed by the chief of doctors, discussions covered the health reality in Iraq, and his eminence stressed the importance of providing the appropriate atmosphere for doctors to carry out their humanitarian role Monday 27/3/2017.

\r\n

His eminence praised the efforts of Iraqi doctors under the difficult circumstances facing the country and the need for intensified efforts to provide medical and health services to the citizens and to aid and provide treatment to the wounded individuals of the military operations and the war against the terrorist gangs of Daesh whom are reaching their end as big victories are achieved in Mosul.

\r\n

His eminence stressed the importance of providing the appropriate atmosphere for doctors to carry out their patriotic duty, as well as activating all legislation and laws that are in the interest and support the Iraqi doctor.