

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim urges Diyala tribes to assume their responsibilities in the post-Daesh phase

Head of the National Iraqi Alliance, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, urged Diyala tribes to shoulder their responsibilities in the post-Daesh phase in order to promote peace and social harmony, pointing out that the regaining of the people make terrorism an outcast, identified and without cover since it is for everyone's interest to stand with the state and the government.

\r\n

This was during his eminence meeting with tribal sheikhs and figures of Diyala province in Baquba Wednesday 5/4/2017.

\r\n

His eminence pointed to the desired Iraqi role in the region and the world if Iraq regained condition and position, pointing that some fear the return of Iraq to its position because it means they return to their usual position and size, his eminence warned of preparatory speech and politicize it to serve some people as well as agendas trying to divide Iraq, affirming that the National Iraqi Alliance is following-up of service issues and the obstacles and the intersection of some projects with government ministries and work on attempts to execute as much projects possible, calling to accept the reality of Iraq, no one can absent anyone because it is undoubted fate, therefore it is necessary to relay on dialogue according to the equation of mutual concessions and mutual guarantees and mutual assurances.