Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim receives the Algerian ambassador to Baghdad Mr. Abdelkader Ben Chaa

Head of the National Iraqi Alliance, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, in his office in Baghdad received the Ambassador of the Algerian Republic to Baghdad Mr. Abdelkader Ben Chaa Saturday 8/4/2017

\r\n

His eminence with Ben Chaa discussed the bilateral relations between the two countries and means of developing relations in cultural and educational venues as well as the importance of exchanging information regarding combating terrorism as a threat that affects everyone and Algeria is a country that suffered from first generations of terrorism, indicating that Daesh is taking its last breath in Iraq and Iraq is regaining its land and people.