

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim reiterates his support for the national majority with a clear national program

Head of the National Iraqi Alliance, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, reiterated his support for assembling a national majority in the upcoming phase, with an agreed and a clear national project, approach and plan, warning from accusations and claims that are spread prior to elections. This took place during his eminence meeting with a number of tribal chiefs and figures of Wasit province, his eminence praised the great role of tribes in supporting the government and the political process, indicating that all officials and governors are members of tribes, expressing his support and assistance for every official who serves citizens and vowed to fight all those involved in corruption \" .

\\r\\n

His eminence pointed out that the province of Wasit and the rest of the provinces witnessed a major development in various fields during the last years, compared to previous contracts where the provinces were neglected, criticizing the bureaucracy that impede the progress of projects. His eminence called for more efforts to increase revenues of the province through the border crossings, agriculture and investment.

\\r\\n

Head of the National Iraqi Alliance reiterated his support regarding the national majority, stressing the importance of forming a national majority for the upcoming phase according to a framework of a specific approach and plan, expressing his rejection to who attempt to influence his own countrymen from abroad through the regional and international agendas.