

Sayyid Ammar Al Hakim calls on young people to assume their responsibilities in the national settlement for it is a project that recognizes the challenges of the post-Daesh phase

Head of the National Iraqi Alliance, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, called on Iraqi youth to shoulder their responsibilities in the context of the national settlement for it is a project that recognizes the challenges of the post-Daesh phase, indicating that it patriotism with political, developmental and economic dimensions.

\r\n

This took place in Baghdad Dewan of youth and sports elite and competencies in his eminence office in Baghdad Saturday, 15/4/2017.

\r\n

His eminence pointed out that the settlement project will expose terrorism when everyone become certain that their interest is in a unified Iraq and in a government in which everyone are represented, and regaining of the people is the most important victory that made Iraq admired by the world, the region and the Arab countries, pointing out that the role of the United Nations is a supportive and coordinating role because the project is made by Iraq.

\r\n

His eminence pointed out that the next stage requires new equation that adopts big percentage of new faces and forming national political lists that would form a national government, not a government numerical after the elections, with the presence of everyone according to loyalty and opposition equation, indicating that the world supports Iraq to get it out of its current state, but will, cohesion, patriotism and sound consultory opinion remain the active tools for advancement. His eminence called for adopting programs that make the people productive and support creativity and innovation, pointing out the importance of burying contradiction between active laws and the constitutional texts stipulated by the Constitution.