

The Leadership Authority of the National Iraqi Alliance holds its regular meeting to discuss the new presidency of the Alliance and its Arab world tour

The Leadership Authority of the National Iraqi Alliance held an extended regular meeting in the office of the Head of the National Iraqi Alliance, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim Saturday 15/4/2017.

\r\n

The meeting discussed the topics on meeting agenda including the political situation at the national level and the relationship of the National Iraqi Alliance with the rest of the Iraqi components, and the formation of the negotiating committee with the Kurds to specify the purpose and objectives desired by the aforementioned committee and its negotiating limits, as well as discussing ways of dialogue with other parties and the mechanism of choosing the new leadership of the National Iraqi Alliance. Attendees discussed the next regional tour that will be conducted by a delegation of the National Iraqi Alliance to introduce the reality of Iraq after the victory over terrorist Daesh. Additionally the Leadership Authority condemned exposing images of religious and political figures to insults in Jordan.