

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakim meets Vice-president Nuri Al-Maliki

Head of the National Iraqi Alliance, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim at his office in Baghdad received vice-president Nuri Al-Maliki Sunday 30/4/2017

\r\n

His eminence discussed with Al-Maliki developments of security and political situations and the Battle of We Are Coming, Ninawah and the post-Daesh phase. His eminence emphasized on the necessity of everyone exertion of efforts in order to save Iraq from current political, security and economic crises.

\r\n

His eminence also stressed on settling the conditions of liberated cities as well as the cities of the liberators, indicating that addressing Daesh requires military, security, development and economic programs.

\r\n

Regarding the national settlement, his eminence indicated that it is a project to build a state away from any affiliations to a specific individual or component, and called to build the citizenship's state basing on the a government of majority not on numerical majority to launch a messages of assurance to all Iraqi people components.