

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim receives a delegation of Feyli Kurds to discuss their demands

Head of the National Iraqi Alliance, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, in his office received a Feyli Kurds component delegation Baghdad Thursday 4/5/2017.

\r\n

His eminence listened to the tendencies and demands of Feyli Kurds and their suffering due to active laws that prevent Feyli Kurds from taking their rights and the rights of martyrs and property disputes, indicating that the National Iraqi Alliance will consider demands of the Feyli Kurds and work with other components to collect the demands and generate laws guaranteeing lifting injustice afflicting Feyli Kurds citizens.

\r\n

His eminence pointed out that Feyli Kurds component was targeted by two aspects the first because of their ethnicity and the second because they follow the doctrine of Ahl al-Bayt (PBUH). His eminence praised the roles played by the Feyli Kurds in the Islamic movement, the building of Iraq and in fighting Daesh terrorism.