

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim with the Kuwaiti ambassador discusses the bilateral relations between the two countries

Head of the National Iraqi Alliance, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, in his office in Baghdad received the Ambassador of the State of Kuwait Mr. Salem Ghassab Al-Zamanan Monday 8/5/2017

\r\n

His eminence with Zamanan discussed the Arab tour previously conducted by the National Iraqi Alliance to a number of Arab and regional countries, pointing out the importance regaining Iraq's regional, international and Arab role after recovering from the security crises, especially with the imminent military victory over terrorist Daesh and the preparations for Post-Daesh phase.

\r\n

His eminence pointed out that the popular mobilization forces is part of the national security and military system, indicating out Iraq's need for modern forces armed with a weaponry that is able to combat terrorist Daesh tactics. His eminence affirmed on moving forward to a national majority government through national lists and blocs representing everyone in order to save Iraq of its crises, the national settlement is a road map for the post-Daesh phase. Additionally, his emience discussed with Zamanan the role of Kuwait in supporting the liberated areas.