

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim discusses with the Iraqi Representative at the United Nations the role of the international community in supporting Iraq

Head of the National Iraqi Alliance, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, in his office in Baghdad received the Permanent Representative of Iraq to the United Nations Ambassador Mohamed Ali Al-Hakim Monday 8/5/2017.

\r\n

His eminence discussed with Ambassador Mohamed the international community's reading to the positive situation of Iraq after the victories achieved by Iraq against the terrorist Daesh, considering that terrorism is a threat to all and that the best means of confrontation is the solidarity of the international community in the face of Daesh on ideological, security, military and political levels.

\r\n

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim called to invest the aforementioned positive reading by communicating with the countries of the world, the region and the Arab world to manifest the unity of Iraq in the face of terrorist Daesh, pointing out that Iraq is fighting a war on behalf of the world and defeating terrorism in Mosul and this will enhance the security status of Western capitals and capitals of the region.

\r\n

His eminence pointed to the importance of national settlement and the role of the United Nations as a sponsor and marketer for the settlement, the National Iraqi Alliance is keen to communicate with the components of Iraq to reach a safe project to