

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim with Chairman of the Independent High Commission for Elections to discuss the law of elections and election procedures

Head of the National Iraqi Alliance, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, in his office in Baghdad received the Chairman of the Independent High Commission for Elections Mr. Srbsst Mustafa Tuesday 9/5/2017.

\r\n

His eminence discussed with Mr. Mustafa the upcoming election law and the possibility of holding elections on schedule, stressed the importance of completing all logistical preparations for the success of the electoral process, and urged political blocs to invest available time and register their parties in the Commission for it is part of the parties law and for it is an important means to conduct elections.