

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim with the President of the republic to discuss the post-victory over Daesh

Baghdad - political editor

\r\n

Head of the National Iraqi Alliance, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, met with President of the Republic, Mr. Fuad Masum, at his excellency's office of the in Baghdad Thursday 25/5/2017.

\r\n

His eminence with President Masum discussed developments in the security and political situation and the imminent victory over terrorist Daesh. His eminence stressed the importance of building on unity used by people when fighting Daesh for the victory phase and achieving social harmony, pointed to the necessity of accompanying the military victory with a political victory that save Iraq from its crises.

\r\n

His eminence stressed Iraq needing development, economic and social plans, to invest the state of societal rejection towards all sorts of terrorism, additionally his eminence with the President of the Republic discussed the national settlement as it represent a road map that is seen realistic by the National Iraqi Alliance based on concession for Iraq.