

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakim: The unity and cohesion of society is through guaranteeing the rights of its sons without distinction or division

Baghdad - political editor

\r\n

Head of the National Iraqi Alliance, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, indicated that preserving the rights of the society without distinction or division is a must for the unity of society and its cohesion, noting that the preservation the rights of everyone without discrimination makes the citizen attached to the homeland and keen on the success of his country, stressing the need to adopt rights on the basis of right and duty, what It is your right is your duty and vice versa.

\r\n

This was during first Ramadan evening in the office of his eminence on Saturday 27/5/2017.

\r\n

His eminence pointed out that the rights system in the Islamic system is fully consistent with human approach, calling to be devoted to the month of God and call, urging believers to stay away from apparent fasting and perform true fasting by performing ethical fasting.

\r\n

His eminence stressed the importance of seeking forgiveness more than once to reach the ideal obedience to God and not surrender to desires of Satan, pointing out that God Almighty assist the believers to obey Him.

\r\n

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim continues during Ramadan evenings in his office to explain the message of the rights of Imam Zine El Abidine, and specifically the right of the hand on the human.