

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim: all sorts of corruption are one of the most significant proofs of injustices

Baghdad - political editor

\r\n

Head of the National Iraqi Alliance, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, indicated that all sorts of corruption are one of the most significant proofs of injustices, there are types of public and private money violations, some hidden and not visible, and some are broadly announced.

\r\n

This was during 2nd Ramadan evening in the office of his eminence on Saturday 28/5/2017.

\r\n

His eminence pointed out that the Koran addresses the corruptors and they are characterized similar to gangs of kidnapping that frighten people and spreading corruption on earth, pointing out that deceit and fraud is one of unannounced corruption types, warning from wrongfully taking orphan money or replacing or mixing it with other money, stressed the need for the society members supporting martyrs' families to be aware to the task size of managing orphans' money until they reach legal age to receive control over their funds, and the society should know that caring for martyrs' families is part of returning the favor for their sacrifice when facing terrorism and protecting Iraq.

\r\n

His eminence also warned of deception by showing good and hiding evil, pointed out one of deception proofs, cheating in the scale, or making promises to people without fulfilling them, as it is the case with some politicians.