

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim: Karrada bombings are condemned and the compass must be directed towards terrorism as a priority

Baghdad - political editor

\r\n

Head of the National Iraqi Alliance, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, condemned the Karrada bombings and public retirement office, his eminence demanded the security services to extent more security efforts, yet Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim expressed his surprise for directing criticism and accusation of negligence to the security services, indicating that terrorism need to succeed for one time to prove the failure of security services, however security services should be successful every time to prove its effectiveness, his eminence pointed that security services were able to break up terrorist attacks attempts in many occasions targeting the capital, but were undeclared for security needs in order to detect and dismantle terrorist networks.

\r\n

this took place at the Fourth Ramadan Evening in his eminence office in Baghdad Tuesday 30/5/2017, his eminence indicated That the Islamic Supreme Council of Iraq is not able to establish a checkpoint on main streets under the pretext of proximity of these areas to its headquarters, and pointed out that the security of everyone is related to the security of the citizen, the performance of security is a performance of the state and cannot be violated because violating it is considered a breach of the law.

\r\n

His Eminence continued his research on the proof of injustice, pointed to the importance of testimony or keeping silent depending on the situation, stressed the importance of good treatment as one of most important proofs of faith and religiousness plus the essentiality of honesty during the activities of the true believers.