

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim: No immunity for outlaws regardless of its role in achieving victory

Baghdad - political editor

\r\n

Head of the National Alliance, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, stated that the greatest victory is to preserve the achievements away from distortion and confusion, stressed that those who break the law are have no immunity and no one is allowed to abduct the state, despite its role in achieving victory over terrorism. His eminence praised the victories achieved by the Iraqi people and the security authorities including Iraqi army, police, popular mobilization forces, clans and Peshmerga in the face of terrorist Daesh and the near conclusion of military confrontation.

\r\n

This took place during the annual ceremonial forum at his eminence office for the eighth memorial of the Hujat al Islam and Muslims Sayyid Abdul Aziz Hakim (sanctify his soul) Wednesday, May 31, 2017.

\r\n

His eminence expressed his rejection to any postponement to the upcoming parliamentary elections, pointed out that accepting postponement of the local elections was because of the current circumstances, yet his eminence rejected any postponement and constitutional vacuum, and pledged to work within the National Iraqi Alliance and the rest of the political powers to prepare the next election law at its local and parliamentary allocations and choose a new council of the electoral commission.

\r\n

His eminence counted administrative and financial corruption more dangerous than terrorism and its Takfiri Fatwas, pointed that corruption shakes the trust of people in the state and institutions and instills frustration and skepticism in everyone, and pointed out the need to expose those who raise the slogan of combating corruption yet they are merged in corruption. His eminence warned that the region will go to an unknown fate after the current escalation wave, asked Saudi Arabia and Iran to sit at the dialogue table and take example from the internal European conflict, which no one won and replaced economic and political integration, noted that Saudi Arabia and Iran are important Islamic countries on both banks of the Gulf.

\r\n

In respect of the occasion character the Iraq Dearest (sanctify his soul), his eminence pointed out a number of personal characteristics of the late on political, social and religious levels, indicated that he was schooled by his brothers and accompanied Imam al-Sadr (sanctify his soul), and was present at all political movements at the time of opposition, made important decisions that were early analysis, his eminence counted the late a man of the state who often favored strategy over temporary step-by-step tactics, and indicated that he raised the slogan of national unity and the cohesion of the prophet's family followers as a necessity for the cohesion of the nation, raised the slogan of national reconciliation and partnership among the components, recalling he had adopted of the issue of taking Iraq out from the Chapter VII of the United Nations Charter and restoring the indecency of Iraq, made Iraq a bridge for rivals to meet through positive neutrality without imposing anything on Iraq and without imposing his opinion on any one.

\r\n

His eminence indicated that the Iraq Dearest believes in a state of citizenship that guarantees the rights of all plus believing in decentralization in its political and administrative dimensions and understood the nature of Iraqi society and its suffering from the dictatorial regime, while he possessed regional and international relations through communication and opened communication with everyone regionally and internationally.