

ayyid Ammar al-Hakim: Belonging to God and the Monotheism is an affiliation that is above all other affiliations and titles

Baghdad - political editor

\r\n

Head of the National Iraqi Alliance, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, expressed the importance of putting the affiliation to God and monotheism before any other affiliations, and stated: \"worshiping is to God Almighty is to be put ahead of other titles because it unites and gathers people.\" And pointed out that all titles such as ethnicity, doctrinism, regionalism and national identities are respectable but come after monotheism.

\r\n

This was during the sixth Ramadan evening in his eminence office in Baghdad Thursday 1/6/2017.

\r\n

His eminence concluded the discussion on conceal the testimony as it is a proof of injustice mentioned in holy Qur'an, citing the Qur'an phrase that underline writing the testimony and document it to keep the rights and prevent denial and falsify the testimony, his eminence indicated that the Qur'an refutes the theory of that Jews are the people of God and that their Sharia is the best of all through affirming that prophets have been sent by God before the message of Moses peace be upon him.