

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim receives the President of the Republic Fuad Masum to discuss post-Daesh phase

Baghdad - political editor

\r\n

Head of the National Iraqi Alliance, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, received in his office in Baghdad his excellency the President of the Republic of Iraq Mr. Fuad Masoum Friday 2/6/2017

\r\n

His eminence with the President Masum discussed developments in the security and political situation and reaching the military conclusion of Mosul battle plus touching upon the national settlement project as a road map for the post-Daesh phase and ending Iraq\'s security and political crises. His eminence stressed Iraq\'s need for the efforts of everyone in developing developmental, political, economic and social resolutions noting the role that can be conducted by the presidency.

\r\n

His eminence called to invest the atmosphere of Ramadan to communicate between the political powers and pass important laws that meet the needs of citizens and complete the structure of the Iraqi state.

\r\n

The President of the Republic indicated of the importance of political powers meeting and to understand the seriousness of the phase to save Iraq from the predications of the phase and protect Iraq from the its consequences.