

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim with the delegation of the Feyli Kurds to discuss the national settlement project and building the state of citizenship

Baghdad - political editor

\r\n

Head of the National Iraqi Alliance, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, met delegation of the Feyli Kurds component headed by Sheikh Mohammed Saeed al-Numani Saturday 3/6/2017.

\r\n

His eminence with the Feyli Kurds delegation discussed the national settlement and building the state of citizenship. His eminence indicated that the Feyli component is an essential and important component that made great sacrifices and was targeted by the dictatorial regimes and carried great burdens psychologically, physically and financially until it became a stricken component of the Iraqi society, stressed that it is necessary to compensate this component for its suffering, the National Iraqi Alliance highly appreciates the this component and the sacrifices that they offered, indicated the importance of Feyli Kurds presence in the national settlement and the post-Daesh phase, stressed the need to look ahead and create a deep, clear and comprehensive vision.

\r\n

His eminence stressed the need for developmental, political, social, cultural, economic and security solutions, stressed that the presence of these terms is necessary to build a state of citizenship that cares for everyone, indicating that the post-Daesh phase project has been presented to the Feyli component and will be presented to the remaining components as it was presented a number of them in previous occasions, and expressed hope to reach a comprehensive national vision and ability to reach a social contract among Iraqis with all their components to build a new Iraq.

\r\n

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim called for thinking about political victory and political achievement to provide a sound and clear vision to reassure Iraqis, expressed the sympathy of the National Iraqi Alliance with the injustice that afflicted Feyli Kurds and will stand with them to address their problems in the legislative and parliament and government levels so as not to the find a single Iraqi citizen that feels the injustice or discrimination.