

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim: Imam Khomeini, sanctify his soul, was faithful to God and a great leader

Baghdad - political editor

\r\n

Head of the National Iraqi Alliance, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, during the eighth Ramadan evening in his office in Baghdad Saturday 3/6/2017, recalled the 18th commemoration of the starter of Islamic revolution in Iran and its leader the deceased Imam Khomeini sanctify his soul, said that Imam Khomeini was characterized by being confident in God Almighty, and that he had a project and a special vision that was supported by loyalty and trust to God, recalling his role in Hawzas (Shiite seminaries) including the Al-Njaf Hawza and then departing to France, and mentioned the success of the Imam in creating a harmonious team of young people who believe in Imam's project, and pointed out that the voice of the Imam reached everyone at a time when there were no communication tools like today.

\r\n

\r\n

His eminence stressed the importance of judging people through their actions, pointing out that one is obligated to be good and an amender who sustain reform and fairness of the people and away from the negative generalization, stressed that the best positions are the positions obtained by the official through the confidence of people before orders of a bureau or decrees.