

he delegation of the National Iraqi Alliance headed by Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim discusses with the Crown Prince of Kuwait confrontation of terrorism and Takfiri ideology

Baghdad - political editor

\r\n

\r\n

Part of the visit to the State of Kuwait, the delegation of the National Iraqi Alliance headed by Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, head of the National Iraqi Alliance, met Crown Prince Sheikh Nawaf Al-Ahmad Al-Jaber Al-Sabah, Monday 5/6/2017.

\r\n

His eminence with the Kuwaiti Crown Prince discussed the bilateral relations between Iraq and Kuwait. His eminence underlined the importance of unity in the face of terrorism especially Takfiri ideology, and pointed out that Iraq is at the final stages of military conclusion with the terrorist Daesh and liberated the occupied soil from Baghdad belt to the northwestern border with Syria. His eminence indicated that the National Iraqi Alliance put forward the national settlement project based on the analysis of the Iraqi facts for the importance of national settlement to save Iraq from its current security and political crises, stressed that the stability of Iraq is the stability of the region and any disorder in Iraq will reflect across the region.

\r\n

His eminence emphasized on the unity of Iraq and its Arabism and respect all honorable headings in Iraq, plus the importance of preserving national sovereignty and building a state of citizenship.