

The delegation of the National Iraqi Alliance headed by Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim participates a number of Gulf style dewans in Kuwait

Baghdad - political editor

\r\n

a customary practice of the Al-Mihrab martyr, Grand Ayatollah Sayyid Muhammad Baqir al-Hakim, and after him, Iraq's dearest, may Allah sanctify thier souls, head of the National Iraqi Alliance, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, leading the National Iraqi Alliance delegation, visited a number of Gulf style dewans in Kuwait Tuesday 6/6/2017.

\r\n

His eminence, during his visit to Kuwait and his meeting with the Kuwaiti political, social, economic and tribal actors, indicated the importance of these gatherings and their outputs in discussing the public, Arab and Islamic issues, his eminence explained some of the situations in Iraq that media distort or falsify. His eminence showed attendees the great efforts of Iraq in facing terrorist Daesh and the situational defferences between June 2014 and June 2017, Iraq managed to defeat Daesh and force them out the borders of Baghdad to the Iraqi-Syrian border, and pointed out that the effort made by Iraq was on behalf of everyone and is spent for the safety of the region and the world, and stressed that the security of everyone begins with assisting Iraq to completely eliminate Daesh Militarily and intellectually.

\r\n

Regarding political facts, his eminence pointed out that the Iraqis have united in the face of terrorism and are determined to invest this unity in building Iraq, the liberated cities and cities of sacrificing liberators.