

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim receives National Security Advisor Mr. Faleh al-Fayadh to discuss post-Daesh phase

Baghdad - political editor

\r\n

Head of the National Iraqi Alliance, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, in his office in Baghdad received National Security Advisor Mr. Faleh Al Fayadh Tuesday 6/6/2017.

\r\n

His eminence with Fayyad discussed the security situation in the capital and the recent bombings that hit Baghdad, stressed to intensify the security effort and take into account the recommendations of the National Iraqi Alliance mentioned during the meeting of the Political Authority that was attended by the commander-in-chief of the armed forces.

\r\n

His eminence warned from Daesh resorting to its known former tactics, sleeper cells and targeting civilians, stressed the importance of keeping up with the operation changes of terrorist Daesh after it had lost ground in all governorates of Iraq. His eminence praised the roles of popular mobilization forces in controlling Iraqi-Syrian border, routes of terrorists' movement and any attempts to enter Iraq from any other location, and pointed to the near victory and getting experience of fighting terrorist Daesh.