

11 امسية Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim calls state institutions to use law to address wrongdoing and immorality spreaders

Baghdad - political editor

\r\n

Head of the National Iraqi Alliance, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, called on the Iraqi state institutions to address the promoters of wrongdoing in society and the spreaders of immorality by the activation of laws and protection of those affected by these actions, stressed that freedom does not mean chaos or absence of law, but personal freedom stops when it intersect with the freedoms of other people and their convictions, freedom demanded by some are strictly limited freedom in countries known of practicing freedom as a fundamental element in the life of their societies.

\r\n

This was in the 11th Ramadan evening at his eminence office in Baghdad Wednesday 7/6/2017.

\r\n

His eminence called on the believers to confront evil through law, pointing out that enjoyning good and forbidding evil has nothing to do with death or livelihood, pointed out the importance of virtue to protect society from the divine punishment of the community when being silent about the prevalence of sin, his eminence stressed maintaining positive situations such as kinship and faith and the expression of the association with God Almighty.