

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim warns from negative generalizations promoted by the hypocrites who are no less dangerous than Daesh

Baghdad - political editor

\r\n

Head of the National Iraqi Alliance, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, warned of negative generalizations and the frustration promoted by some people, described those promoters as hypocrites, who are no less dangerous than terrorist Daesh, because they are an enemy hidden under trustworthy titles.

\r\n

this was during the twelfth Ramadan evening in his Baghdad office Thursday 8/6/3017, his eminence indicated there are who circulate negatives, mocks everything and exaggerates the losses, and the prevalence of this phenomenon will push the honorable good people away from the scene and will give away the arena to the corrupt, opportunists and profiteers, pointed out that a hypocrite is characterized by being coward, lazy, arrogant, liar and despotic, his eminence called on the community to distinguish the hypocrites and fight them and to have a prudent and scrutinizing opinion before talking of other people.