

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim: The popular mobilization forces defeated Daesh using simple capabilities with strong and sound faith

Baghdad - political editor

\r\n

Head of the National Iraqi Alliance, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, recalled that on same dates in 2014 the military institution was stricken by Daesh invasion in Iraqi cities and the massacres committed against civilians, indicated that the popular mobilization forces managed to defeat Daesh with simple capabilities but was strengthened with a strong and sound faith until the victories started from gates of Baghdad and nowadays at the Syrian-Iraqi border.

\r\n

This was during the 14th Ramadan evening in his eminence office of in Baghdad Saturday 10/6/2017.

\r\n

His eminence interrelated the events of Imam Al-Hassan (peace be upon him) confronting deviations of Muawiya, and pointed out that the army of Imam Hassan suffered from fatigue and weakness of faith and political differences and terror from the Sham army, and this is similar to the military institution status before the fall of Mosul, and recalled the massacre of Spyker, where more than 1700 Iraqis were victimized. His eminence counted the birth of Imam Al-Hassan (peace be upon him), the first proof of the continuousness of the Messenger of Allah (peace be upon him) offspring, the noble Prophet and his brother, Imam Hussein, paid special treatment to Imam Al-Hassan full of kindness, affection and warmth.