

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim stresses on keeping secrets of people and to not divulge or expose it to defamation

Baghdad - political editor

\r\n

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim stressed the importance of keeping secrets in society and to not divulge or expose it to defamation, warning misuse of information and social network sites that caused many social and even political crises.

\r\n

This was in the sixteenth Ramadan evening in his eminence office in Baghdad Monday 12/6/2017.

\r\n

His eminence explained that the disclosure of secrets and not bearing the responsibility of keeping it is the characteristics of hypocrites and the most dangerous one, people become subjected to defamation and projection, and pointed to other characteristics of the hypocrite like tyranny, unrealism and disobedience, and called for taking caution of these characteristics, identify and diagnose it when interacting with people, a hypocrite is the most dangerous enemy that maybe close to people, but hidden and shady.