

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim: The unity of Iraq is a red line and there must be a political achievement that accompanies the military achievement

Baghdad - political editor

\r\n

Head of the National Iraqi Alliance, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, counted the unity of Iraq a red line, and called to accompany the military progress and victory with a victory and progress on the political level, his eminence pointed out that the popular mobilization forces and fighting terrorism are a natural extension of previous jihad experiments that isolated the former regime and deprived it of its content from the point of view of its supporters, and pointed to the importance of national settlement, bearing wounds and the availability of social solutions.

\r\n

His eminence during a celebration held marking the sufficient Jihad fatwa and the establishment of the popular mobilization forces that took place in Baghdad Tuesday 13/6/2017, identified victory factors by the parenthood of the Religious Authority, the sufficient Jihad fatwa and the leadership that anticipate the vision of reality and awareness of the people who responded to the call, making continuous victories from walls of Baghdad to the Syrian border and near conclusion of Mosul, his eminence praised the role played by the Islamic Republic of Iran in support of Iraq by weapons while those who have paid weapons contracts with Iraq contracts refused to support Iraq, and also praised the roles the senior Iranian advisers who stood on the berms, gave advice, sacrificed their lives and were martyred.

\r\n

His eminence warned of vanity and arrogance that can affect who victored, called to stay on standby, stressed to pay attention to the security challenge that would take away the joy of victory, as happened with the liberation of Fallujah and the bloody bombing of Karrada last year.