

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim: The popular mobilization forces are a necessity to keep national security during the post-Daesh phase

Head of the National Iraqi Alliance, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, stressed the need for popular mobilization forces during the post-Daesh phase, noting the importance of providing political cover for the popular mobilization forces and that popular mobilization forces would protect the political project and the political experiment.

\r\n

This was during his eminence meeting with the war media under of the popular mobilization forces authority in his office in Baghdad Sunday 18/6/2017.

\r\n

His eminence called war media to face the campaigns that spread confusion and inaccurate news, warned of disorder experienced by the popular mobilization forces and all forces similar to them throughout history, stressed the need to handle mistakes and not justify it and not circulate it, mistakes are condemned and bared by their perpetrators without being generalized and scratch a security, military and social achievement accomplished by the popular mobilization forces during confrontation with Daesh.

\r\n

His eminence urged popular mobilization forces media leaders to pay attention to the upcoming stage and document achievements and its role in the community peace, indicated that the documentation has many forms including visual and written, stressed the need for a popular mobilization forces culture in the field of voluntary work and cultural and service mobilization.