

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim: In Mosul, the flag of Daesh flocked and in Mosul it will fall, the victory is the victory all Iraqis

Mashhad - political editor

\r\n

Head of the National Iraqi Alliance, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, stated In Mosul, the flag of Daesh flocked and in Mosul it will fall in Iraq and in the world as well, and pointed that the victory of Mosul is a victory for all Iraqis considering the demographic diversity in Mosul that makes a miniature Iraq, pointed to the need to focus on the security and intelligence side as Daesh may appear ended, yet it still needs a long time of confrontation, stressed the importance of the political project that reassures everyone in terms of law and Constitution and not out of weakness. That is the document of national settlement espoused by the National Iraqi Alliance based on its three pillars concessions, reassurances and mutual guarantees.

\r\n

This was in the general assembly of the Union of Islamic Radio and Television in the holy city of Mashhad on Sunday 2/7/2017.

\r\n

His eminence stressed the fight against corruption as a priority in the post-liberation phase, adding the reconstruction of liberated cities and the cities of the liberators as well, stressed on the national sovereignty of Iraq no soldier or military base of any foreign side are to be located on Iraq, reiterated emphasis on unity of Iraq and convince partners, who some of them imagine that they can have better chances by dividing Iraq,

\r\n

His eminence called for generalizing the popular mobilization forces experience from being a military mobilization to a humanitarian mobilization who provide care for the families of martyrs, the vulnerable and needy families, and health mobilization of doctors who provide health services to the needy and an economic mobilization through involving people in reviving the wheel of economy and a media and culture mobilization as well, his eminence indicated that Iraq will regain its regional roles bridging relationship between the rivals, and from that stemmed the invitation to the dialogue table to define areas of disagreement, engagement, agreement and interests.

\r\n

Regarding missionary media, his eminence that the missionary media should be characterized by principality in terms of the message and a media of culture to build an Islamic society that is enlightened promoting unity and does not create divisions, and develop areas of convergence and neutralize areas of intersection, plus credibility and conveying facts without lies or exaggerations taking into account priorities to avoid luring, the first issue is the Palestinian Issue and rejection of extremism.

\r\n

His eminence stressed on professionalism, objectivity, information industry, inclusiveness, stability, resistance, lenience, fairness, confidence in self, openness, Intrepidity, clarity, mobilization of the nation and giving the popular momentum to the project, and stressed the importance of reconciling and intellectual confrontation, facing atheism even in its smallest circles.