

The Central Shura Council of Shahid al-Mihrab holds its regular meeting and discusses the post-liberation phase of Mosul and the upcoming security challenges

The Central Shura Council of the Shahid Al-Mihrab held its periodic meeting at the office of the head of the National Iraqi Alliance, Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakim Monday 10/7/2017.

\r\n

Discussions covered the most important developments in the security and military situation and the post-victory phase in Mosul toppling the alleged Daesh caliphate, plus discussing the latest political situation, the future conferences to be held, and the resuming meetings of the Iraqi House of Representatives for its last tenure quarter.

\r\n

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim explained in his speech that Iraq succeeded in recovering its soil and broke Daesh in terms of military, Daesh no longer controls any of the provinces of Iraq, with exceptin of some cities, his eminence pointed that the victory would not have been achieved without the Supreme Religious Authority Fatwa and that was responded by the believers who have converted weakness to a great will that made victory over Daesh, stressed care provision to wounded and families of the martyrs, who are the title of the sacrifice, and pointed out that these care provision roles are not only governmental roles, but roles all should be involved from state to social levels, his eminence considered the fight against corruption of the most important battles in the coming period, because Corruption is another type of terrorism that devours the resources and future of the people, and this requires activation of laws that eliminate the corruption that is finding protections through gaps in legal clauses or because of unclear legal measure.

\r\n

His eminence renewed warning of terrorists resorting to operations targeting civilians to respond to his defeat and to damage the joy of victory, recalled the bombing of Karrada, which followed the liberation of Fallujah, his eminence called on security services to develop plans that suitable to nature of challenges and reduce manifestations of militarization in the Iraqi street.

\r\n

Regarding the conference to be held mid-July in Baghdad, his eminence stated that the location of conference is important, but the time of the conference is not appropriate so let\'s postpone it to a better condition, noted that the presence of wanted individuals is unacceptable, and called for adopting patriotism as basis for any conference and that includes all other components and not to be limited to a specific component.

\r\n

With regard to elections and electoral entitlement, conferees stressed the importance and necessity of complying with constitutional timing of the submitting electoral entitlement and finalizing the new electoral law that would guarantee justice for all.

\r\n

At the Shahid Al-Mihrab movement level, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim stressed the need to conduct visits and solve the problems of people and follow up the work of local governments, his eminence praised the efforts made to provide service to people, stressed the commitment to religious rules and commands relayed through the religious authority and care provision to families of martyrs.