

Meeting with Yazidis delegation ... Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim praises the sacrifices of the Yazidis in the fight against Daesh and devotion to their land

Head of the National Iraqi Alliance, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, in his office in Baghdad received a delegation from the Yazidi sect leaded by the head of the Yezidi Endowment Mr. Sherwan Al Ismail.

\r\n

His eminence stressed the importance of Iraqi components and the qualitative addition that these components provide to the Iraqi social structure, stressed that these components are not measured by its number but by adding quality to Iraq.

\r\n

His eminence with the Yazidi delegation also discussed a post-Daesh phase and the sacrifices made in the face of this terrorist group, praised the sacrifices made by the Yazidis in their devotion to their land, and expressed his support to empower the people of Sinjar to succeed in their city and contribute to maintaining security.

\r\n

Yazidi delegation stressed on unity of Iraq and Iraqi people, and the support of the Yezidi community to security forces and their readiness to be integrated with the security forces.