

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakim receives delegation of Iranian Ministry of Foreign Affairs to discuss the bilateral relations between Iraq and Iran

Head of the National Iraqi Alliance, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, received in his office in Baghdad, delegation of Iranian Ministry of Foreign Affairs currently visiting Baghdad Tuesday 24/7/2017.

\r\n

His eminence with the Iranian delegation discussed the unsettled issues between the two countries, especially technical issues, his eminence called for espousing mechanisms of solutions that would benefit the interests of the two countries, indicated that the relationship between the Islamic Republic of Iran and Iraq is based on history between the two neighboring countries, common interests and challenges. Iraq will not forget the Tehran's stand along with Iranian political and religious leaders in support of Iraq in facing terrorism.

