

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim with the representative of the Secretary-General of the United Nations to discuss the developments of the political situation and the support of the UN to Iraq

Head of the National Alliance, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, received in his office in Baghdad the representative of UN Secretary-General, Mr. Jan Kubis Wednesday 26/7/2017.

\r\n

His eminence with Kubis discussed the developments in the security and political situation in Iraq and the region and the aid that must be achieved in the post-victory phase and the liberation of Mosul. His eminence stressed Iraq's need for statesmen capable of taking responsibility and giving priority to the public interest and unity of Iraq over personal and groups interests, reiterated the possibility of implementing the national settlement If real will and the convergence are available.

\r\n

His eminence pointed out that the year 2017 is completely different from 2003, so it is necessary to prepare plans and programs that commensurate with the challenges of the phase, described the next phase in a phase for solidifying democracy and it is necessary to leave the narrow titles to more wider titles, the first of these titles is Iraq and its unity and interacting basing on the principle of citizenship. His eminence urged the international community to shoulder its responsibilities towards Iraq as it defended the world and international security when confronted the terrorist groups of Daesh.

\r\n

The representative of the Secretary-General of the United Nations, Mr. Jan Kubic congratulated his eminence on the establishment of the Al-Hikma National Movement, wishing success in political path, and stressed the support to Iraq in the face of challenges.