

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim receives Czech parliament delegation to discuss bilateral relations between Iraq and Czech

Head of the National Iraqi Alliance, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, in his office in Baghdad, received a delegation of Czech parliament members headed by Deputy Speaker of Parliament Monday 31/7/2017.

\r\n

His eminence with the Czech delegation discussed the bilateral relations between Iraq and Czech and means of developing relations particular in combating terrorism. His eminence called for coordinating efforts to confront terrorist groups and intersect terrorists activities especially movement and finance aspects.

\r\n

in respect of Iraq matters, his eminence indicated that Iraq is collecting the fruits of patience, pointed out that the National Iraqi Alliance proposed a national settlement which is an early reading of event in the post-Daesh phase and required actions from the political powers, stressed on unity of Iraq as it is in the interest of everyone internally and in the interest of the countries of the region and the world, citing \"Dividing Iraq will have repercussions on the region and the world, it is in the interest of the region countries and the world to support the unity of Iraq\"