

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim presides over the first meeting for leaders and officials of the Al-Hikma National Movement

Head of the National Iraqi Alliance, leader of the Al-Hikma National Movement, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, presided the first meeting for Iraq provinces\' leaders and officials of the Al-Hikma National Movement Tuesday 1/8/2017.

\r\n

His eminence reiterated emphasis on the Islamic, patriotic, speech fundamentals performed by the Al-Hikma National Movement plus the policy of openness to all segments of society, pointed out that it stems from the challenges of the stage, considering that the year 2017 is very different from the year 2003 based on many variables that have have been imposed and taken place including the roles of youth and their influence in the future stage of Iraq.

\r\n

His eminence pointed out that Al-Hikma that means wisdom is a Quranic and Islamic term, stressed the commitment to constants, instructions and directives of the religious authority, and called to be strongly active in the field and adopt new mechanisms to communicate with people to contribute in the delivery of movement ideas .