

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim: We respect all aspirations and emphasize the unity of Iraq and its people to maintain its forte

Head of the National Iraqi Alliance, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, stressed the importance of Iraqi soil integrity and the Iraqi components in order to face the challenges, indicated that the national settlement is a political, economic, social, security and a military necessity Thursday, 3 /8/ 2017.

\r\n

This was in his eminence speech during participating in the first conference of the organization (Yazda) the third anniversary of the Yezidis genocide, which resulted after the fall of Sinjar city.

\r\n

His eminence stressed the importance of a regional unity, especially the Axis countries, Iran, Turkey and Saudi Arabia, indicated that if scopes of influence are not balanced and mechanism to face challenges were not found in the region, Iraq will continue to face many problems.

\r\n

His eminence explained that Iraq needs a common ground for regional dialogue as the need for unity of land and people.

\r\n

Regarding the suffering that agonized Yezidis by the hands of terrorist Daesh groups, his eminence described the suffering a major crime, considering the number of Yazidi female captives and the high number of victims who were killed by Daesh groups and the number of Turkmen females who were captured and burnt, and called for a substantial compensation for the magnitude of damage.