

The Marshlands Organization joins the Al-Hikma National Movement

Head of the National Iraqi Alliance, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, in his office in Baghdad on Wednesday 16/8/2017, received delegation of the Marshlands Organization, which is comprised of members from the southern provinces including Basra, Maysan and Dhi Qar. The delegation congratulated his eminence for establishing the Al-Hikma National Movement and announced joining the movement led by Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim.

\r\n

His eminence stressed that the establishment of the Al-Hikma National Movement was a result of reading challenges of the current phase, considering that 2003 is completely different from 2017. Therefore a new vision is needed to take all challenges into consideration.

\r\n

His eminence pointed out that the national lists are the solution to the political crisis in Iraq and components of Iraqi people should feel safe and know that their rights are kept, noted that Iraq is stronger than before and has become the center of the world's admiration and appreciation and Iraq had bravely fought terrorism citing the roles of southern provinces in confronting dictatorship and terrorism, and then state-building, confronting Daesh, the liberation of cities and restoring life, and protecting the national project.