

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim with delegation of the Union of National Powers to discuss current phase need for unbiased entities, political blocs and lists

Head of the National Iraqi Alliance, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, affirmed Iraq need to entities, blocs and lists that break ethnic, sectarian and groups for the sake of a patriotic space that comprehend rights of everyone and keep all titles, indicated that this need stems from challenges of the phase and anchoring democracy. 2017 is different from 2003 and the facts of the past period are not acceptable in the current time.

\r\n

His eminence hosted delegation of the Union of National Powers headed by member of parliament, Mr. Salah al-Jubouri in his eminence office, Baghdad Thursday 17/8/2017, reiterated his call to political blocs to note these challenges to work on the sound democratic equation which is comprised of supportive and opposition parties in order to end status of all being affiliated to the government and all criticize it and evade responsibility, pointed to the need to solve the issues in the liberated areas and work to restore harmony and social peace.

\r\n

Head of the National Iraqi Alliance stressed investment of society immunization from terrorism, draining terrorism resources and bastions. The delegation congratulated the establishment of AL-Hikma National Movement, a big step in the right direction.