

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim receives a delegation of Kurdish powers headed by Ala Talabani

Head of the National Iraqi Alliance, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, his office in Baghdad received delegation of Kurdish powers headed by member of parliament Ala Talabani Thursday 17/8/2017.

\r\n

His eminence emphasized on the unity of Iraq as a real guarantee for everyone and everyone's rights, called to read the facts of the region and the world and be aware of the hazards facing everyone under multiple titles that can only be faced by unity of positions and unity of discourse. His eminence pointed out fighting terrorism was a lesson on how terrorism was able to invade more than half of Iraq during the peak of internal dispute and nowadays how Iraq defeated terrorism to the farthest points on the Syrian border when Iraqis united for the greater title, the homeland and the greater good.

\r\n

His eminence stressed that dialogue is a solution to any given crisis provided if dialogue is based on the approach of right and duty, stressed that Kirkuk remains a city of peaceful coexistence where the rights of its people of all components are protected.

\r\n

The Kurdish delegation congratulated and praised the establishment and starting Al-Hikma National Movement, pointed to the importance of communication and counting the Al-Hikma (wisdom) a recognition to Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim's speech and history.