

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim praises Wasit province experience of peaceful coexistence among the components and calls to pass it

Baghdad - political editor

\r\n

Head of the National Iraqi Alliance, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, hosted a group of elders and tribal figures of Wasit province Thursday 24/8/2017, commended Wasit province experience in the peaceful coexistence of Iraqi society components, called for passing Wasit\'s experience to all provinces as it gave a bright picture as it contains diverse community structure that included multiple sects. His eminence stressed opposing extremist discourse, providing a safe and proper environment for foreign investors to build and promote the country.

\r\n

His eminence expressed his belief in having a bright and promising future for Iraq, the financial crisis will not last, the flow of funds through investments needs unity and security. His eminence indicated that Iraqi sacrifices made the world bow with respect to Iraq after achieving the great victory over terrorism, reiterated warning to terrorism threat as threatening to all, citing the incidents of Barcelona where terrorism used basic methods of attacks that can only be opposed by countering extremist thought.

\r\n

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim said that wisdom is the key to solving all problems facing Iraq, his eminence pointed out the importance of ethnicity pride not to influence other ethnicities and other sects and components, called for openness to the comprehensive identity represented in the national identity.