

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim: Breaking barriers between community components is not suitable for some because it makes them lose their electoral speech to intimidate people

Head of the National Iraqi Alliance, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, in his Baghdad Office, during Dewan of Baghdad for Youth and Civil Society elites Saturday 26/8/2017, explained that attitudes taken by some against projects that aim to break barriers between Iraqi society components is because their fear of losing electoral speech that makes sects alerted from each other and hence gain votes, his eminence called to be warned of these voices, expose them and defend national projects that thoroughly read challenges of current phase and the next phase, stressed that the solution for Iraq is nationalism in order to provide Iraq stability and end Iraq crises.

\r\n

His eminence stressed the importance of preserving the Islamic standards, openness to all components and being present in the General Conference of the Al-Hikma National Movement, plus the empowerment of efficient young people, pointed to the importance of combating corruption, empowering women, promote the status of services and education, modernize course of actions and elevating the level of institutions, the title of the new entity had seen these points and a movement was formed, because the movement is more comprehensive than partisanship, and was a wisdom, because Iraq need wisdom in dealing with crises.

\r\n

His eminence stressed that the unity of Iraq is a must to achieve victory and it is necessary to maintain victory by supporting and complement it with security, political, economic and social victories. His eminence commended the youth\'s stands and motivation to defend Iraq responding the call of the blessed religious authority for Sufficiency Jihad, affirmed Iraq\'s need to open relationships with everyone based on achieving interest to Iraq.