

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim stresses consolidation of citizenship, provision of service to people and fight against corruption and

Head of the National Iraqi Alliance, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, in a meeting with elite leaders of Baghdad and members and officials of Baghdad sectors members of the Al-Hikma National Movement Wednesday 30/8/2017 stressed the importance of combating corruption and work on assembling unbiased political blocs that anchor the principle of citizenship, which guarantees the rights of everyone, described the Al-Hikma National Movement in the movement for service at which members compete to serve people and best performers are the closest to people and best in providing service to them.

\r\n

His eminence stressed that the Al-Hikma National Movement is a national movement that will represent Iraqi components on basis of efficiency and integrity, noted that this endeavor seems currently difficult, but it is the solution that will be sought by those who now criticize this approach, pointed out that the General Conference will work to represent the components and empower young people and women by a planned percentage of their presence in the General Authority and in the other parts of the decision making circle, his eminence indicated that wisdom is what Iraq needs at the moment to address crises at all levels.

\r\n

His eminence reiterated his assertion that the establishing the movement was to present solution and was not a reaction, but a reading of challenges and input of the phase, which is different from the previous phase. Democracy is closer to consolidation and mechanisms of consolidation must be different from the mechanisms of transforming society into a democratic society, as was the case in 2003.