

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim visits security forces officers wounded during the battle of Tal Afar

Head of the National Iraqi Alliance, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, on the first day of Eid al-Adha, visited the Iraqi security officers of Iraqi army, the federal police and the popular mobilization forces who were wounded during the recent military operations Tal Afar and hospitalized in Medical City, Baghdad.

\r\n

His eminence commended the morale of the wounded and their impatience to return to battlefield to complete the liberation of the entire Iraqi land, called for more care and attention to them.