

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim with Sheikh Asad al-Falyi to discuss the reality of the Fayli Kurds and the means of making justice for their historical grievance

Head of the National Iraqi Alliance, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, in his Baghdad office received Sheikh Asad al-Fayli and discussed the reality of the Fayli Kurds and means of making justice for their historical grievance Wednesday 6/9/2017

\r\n

His eminence pointed out that the Fayli Kurds were subjected to folds of injustice as they were targeted twice, for their sectarian affiliation to the members of prophet Mohamad family (peace upon them), and for their Kurdish ethnicity, his eminence urged for enacting more acts and legislations that compensate this original component of Iraqi society for the harm they had suffered.

\r\n

His eminence called on the Fayli Kurds realign to gain political and parliamentary representation that commensurate with their size of massed, pointed out that the solution lies in national unbiased lists which will guarantee the attend of everyone on the basis of competence and integrity. His eminence praised the sacrifices made by the Fayli Kurds during the Islamic Movement, against the former regime and in building the Iraqi experience, and not lastly their sacrifices and roles responding the call of the religious authority to defend Iraq and sanctities and offered martyrs for the sake of Iraq, its people and its dignity.