

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim emphasize security is correlated with the reassuring political project, the recovery of the economy and the provision of services

Head of the AL-Hikma National Movement, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, in his office in Baghdad met tribal leaders of Basra province, Wednesday 13/9/2017, his eminence emphasized that security provision and strengthen the prestige of the state is correlated with the reassuring political project, which achieves stability and result in the recovery of country\'s economy through investment and attract global capital to Iraq. His eminence pointed out that Basra province made great sacrifices throughout the period of dictatorship, after the fall of the former regime and in the fight against terrorist groups of Daesh and responded the fatwa of the religious authority.

\r\n

His eminence added that Basra province is worthy of attention and appreciation, affirmed that he cares and follow up on the province situations and any aspect that would contribute in supporting the province, it is necessary to think of a new method to promote the province situation through investments after providing security and stability, and reassurances to investors, this will only be achieved after creating a comprehensive reassuring political project for all components of the community.

\r\n

His eminence indicated that the priorities of citizens for the upcoming phase is services, and this require creating a synergized team without the inconsistencies and obstacles seen in the services institutions and ministries, his eminence emphasized the need to apply wisdom to run the country and to gather all Iraqi community components under a national list in order to overcome sectarianism, party quotas so to achieve the people\'s aspirations.

\r\n

His eminence urged the tribes of Basra to nominate competent and impartial figures from their sons to run in the upcoming elections, support the projects and programs that unite the people of Iraq, and seek to provide services, indicated that the philosophy of the AL-Hikma National Movement is to unite the hearts of Iraqis.