

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim with the US and British ambassador to discuss the required efforts to solve the issue of Kurdistan region

Head of the National Iraqi Alliance, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, in his office in Baghdad, received US Ambassador to Iraq Mr. Douglas Silliman and British ambassador to Iraq Mr. Frank Baker Saturday 16/9/2017

\r\n

His eminence discussed the issue of Kurdistan region referendum and efforts to find a solution to convince Kurdish leaders to change their position.

\r\n

His eminence stressed that the dialogue will guarantee finding solution and the escalation of issue does not serve anyone, pointed out that the Iraqi political powers in Iraq should work hard to find an alternatives to solve the crisis, stressed that the unity of Iraq is the fate of everyone and the interest of everyone is in keeping unity of Iraq.

\r\n

His eminence pointed out that the problems and conflicting points of view leads to dialogue and not to search other solutions that do not serve the very sides demanding it, reiterated warning from consequences of dividing Iraq that will have impacts across the region. Iraq is an exceptional and influential country in the region and the world.