

Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim with the Minister of Construction and Housing Ms. Ban Nafi' to discuss the status of housing in Iraq and means to overcome the crisis

Head of the National Iraqi Alliance, Sayyid Ammar al-Hakim, his office in Baghdad met the Minister of Construction and Housing, Ms. Ban Nafi' in Wednesday 20/9/2017, his eminence with Nafi' discussed status of the housing crisis in Iraq and solutions considering the financial crisis, called to find alternative ways in handling this crisis and give the private sector and opportunity to contribute in resolving this crisis.

\r\n

His eminence pointed out that the housing crisis is escalating as numbers of Iraqi society is increasing, therefore it is important to focus on the reconstruction of cities, manage land trespassing, complete lands inventory and categorizing and supply basic services in order to enable the citizen to start building.

\r\n

His eminence stressed on equality with the liberated cities and the cities of liberators who have offered all their capacity and had offered their blood to liberate the Iraqi soil, stressed on clarifying this image in donor's conferences in Iraq, as well as the importance of notifying the international community to shoulder its responsibilities towards Iraq, as Iraq had fought a war on behalf of the world.